DYLAN HOTEL

A 107-room boutique hotel located in the former Chemists Club building in Midtown Manhattan, the Dylan sets a new standard for contemporary elegance with a distinctive design that redefines opulence for a new age while preserving the landmark-quality architecture of the 1903 Beaux-Arts structure. The grandeur of the Dylan's public areas is evident from the moment one passes through the entryway. With 11-foot ceilings, the guestrooms feel more spacious than the average NYC hotel room, while warm white and pale-blue walls, deep amethyst and steel-blue carpeting, sapphire taffeta drapes and custom, ebony-stained furniture combine to create a tranquil environment.
